*BR Class 91 InterCity Swallow on the ECML The LNERs premier long distance service, the Class 91 InterCity Swallow, is well represented on the East Coast Main Line. Return to an era when passenger trains travelled for miles at night thanks to a sleeping car on the rear of the train. This is a visually stunning mod, with extra sprucing to the interior and the wagon. With a range of scenarios for the Class 91 on the ECML, there's tons of playtime to be had with this mod. This is an Eastern Electric locomotive replacer, replacing the class 66 locomotives with modern Euro Electric variants. This option will also make the driver cockpit feel more realistic and able to cope with the EWS onboard software. There are three styles of working controls, giving different configurations depending on your taste. Easy Digital, WnW and CSF. The working controls are the equipment supplied to the drivers of Euro Electric trains for traction and braking control. This is a lightweight copper traction motor, a type commonly used on British Electric multiple units. It was manufactured by Brush Traction of West Hartlepool. It replaced the earlier Westinghouse 1155 type, fitted to a broad range of locomotives including the class 91s, as well as the British Rail Class 08. This new conversion offers a great looking and sounding interior which is finished with LNER red and grey stripes. This option comes with 10 included scenarios covering the route between Peterborough and York. There are also three different locomotive liveries, including working GPO livery, InterCity Swallow livery and a third randomly selected, debranded livery. There are also a few extra vehicle and facility related items. So whether you want to spend time driving the InterCity Swallow or idly watching the scenery pass you by, this mod is full of fun and adventure. It will help you relive the magical days of travelling through the historic East Coast Main Line. All this with a price tag under £8.99! Download size: 2.86GB Sim Saver: Steam Workshop Steam Workshop. We appreciate if you leave us a constructive review on Steam. Our team will be active to help you solve any issues. *Class 66s on the East Coast Main Line The East Coast Main Line is home to the LNERs Class 66 electric locomotives, driving passenger trains that operate between Peterborough and York. This is a visually stunning package, with extra spru

OMEYES'S INFO When the floodwaters of the Mississippi finally recede and the raging currents drain away, the Gulf Coast and those who toiled in this shoreline of America will rebuild and rise up. About Original "Don't Sink" cover created in 2003. It belongs to Estelle Yuesies. I (OSTOMEYES) bought the rights to use it to memorialize all lives lost in one of America's worst natural disasters. Naturally, its relevance would have dwindled since Katrina, with less emphasis and attention paid to it by front runners, etc. Even so, I wanted to put a check on the play and its performance (or non-performance... The Turner Field mural covers were being pulled up and destroyed by the artist). In the end of December 2008, I licensed to OSTOMEYES'S THE BIG TOE STUDIOS for the copyright of "Don't Sink" for a year. In 2009, OSTOMEYES'S THE BIG TOE STUDIOS was burned in a fire resulting from Hurricane Ike. Prior to that time, OSTOMEYES'S THE BIG TOE STUDIOS donated some copies of the "Don't Sink" to the Turner Field mural. That artwork will continue to be compiled post-Katrina, but in the meantime, the call is out to all artists and designers. My commentary on the Naughty Reindeer was inspired by the 2004 OSTOMEYES'S ART INSPIRATION INSTITUTE in Houston. The Gulf Breeze, Florida mural is a remake of the original which was to be painted here by I (OSTOMEYES) in the early 2000's. However, Katrina forced me to forgo this enterprise. Here is the original mural, when it still adorned the facade of Huffman High School. This creation was created by Luminary Mural Group as a poster advertisement for their marketing company, and was to be installed into their collective archives. They call the poster "Waterfall". A thankful spirit takes control, surpassing the trauma of human disaster: Happy are those who are surrounded by light, who have been engulfed in a sunny sky and blessed with the warm touch of a sun warmed breeze. A stormy wind rages against the harbor with whispers of potential destruction of a floating vessel: A "Don't Sink" reminder shows to not be greedy....Disaster can play dice with anybody's life! It is here to remind that we must be

You play as the Clan of the Kraken. Your goal: Ascend to the Iron Throne. Your enemies: => The other clans: A clan is ruled by a leader. => The Dwarves: A strange people, prone to mines, life guarding in dark places, and annoying as hell. => The Cowards: A horde of ignorant peasants. => The Others: A threat that will evolve in the game. In a world of clans with a lot of unknowns, the Clan of the Kraken is made of brave people who abhor their flaws. They know the importance of education and tradition. They are pragmatic and adaptable. Inspired by the legends and myths of old, the Clan of the Kraken is not afraid to change. Your story: Created and controlled by You, the Master player. You, the Master, will lead the Clan of the Kraken to victory. The Clan of the Kraken: Heros: You can assign villagers to build. Heroes will not die if they are assigned to build. Villagers: You can assign villagers to be warriors or Mages. They will die if assigned to builds. Myths and Legends: You, the Master, will decide if You need to take myths and legends into account in the game. Settings: You have the possibility to choose what happens when someone does not pay you or the villagers in time. Systems: Systems allow You, the Master, to manage your Clan of the Kraken to have a higher level than the rest. The Clan of the Kraken is not a stable clan. Each clan will have its chance, have its win percentage and its conquering rate. You, the Master, will use these statistics to make the right decision before sending your Clan to battle. Training: You, the Master, can assign villagers to training. Villagers and Heroes can be trained to improve their skills. All villagers or heroes can be trained at a building. Training level upgrades: You can upgrade training level by spending this Wyrd. Training level up, at the cost of Wyrd, will allow you to have an extra villager or hero that can be placed at a build. Wyrd: Wyrd can be spent to have special powers.

These powers are game changing. The Clan of the Kraken: Cousins: Each clan will have a number of Cousins that can be attached to the
